

Winner of the

"Be part of The Semex Alliance team at the RWF" contest

Mylène Fournier

develop some contacts and friendships with people who share with me the same passion : agriculture”.

President of the Rural Youth Club in her area, Mylène is presently studying Animal production technologies at the ITA Campus in La Pocatière and she is still helping with the work on the family farm, Ferme Yveclair.

Mylène Fournier from Sainte-Luce was selected as part of the staff of The Semex Alliance team following our contest held this summer. With other young people coming from the territories of our Partners Gencor, Eastern Breeders Inc. and Westgen and TSA's international distributors, Mylène will care for the cows in the exhibit of the Hall of Fame/Sales of the Stars at the RWF to be held in Toronto in November.

Concerning the reasons that motivated Mylène to enrol on the contest, she wrote : “I will be able to apply what I already know and to verify if the methods that I am using are correct. I also wish to
